Prisoner Admits Having Sold Liquor Contrary to Law-Had Made No Statement Since His Arrest and Testimony Excited Keenest Interest.

MARYVILLE, MO., Oct. 12 .- (Special.) C. G. Jesse, who is on trial charged with having murdered Editor Frank Griffin, last April, was put on the stand in his own defense to-day. He had made no statement since the killing and his evidence was awaited with intense interest. He admitted that he had sold liquor contrary to law at his drug store. He said that shortly after he came to Maryville, three years ago, Griffin asked him for money saying that he, Griffin, was in a position to do the defendant damage with his paper and that from this time he gave the deceased-$10 a month until the latter raised his demand to $20. He protested, but began paying $39 a month and continued to do so until his drug store was destroyed by fire, early last April. After the fire he went to St. Joseph, but he came back to Maryville in a short time broke according to his statement to such an extent that he mortgaged his household furniture and pawned his wife's diamonds to raise money. Shortly after his return, the witness said, Griffin approached him and gaid he understood he was going into business again and demanded more money Jesse says he protested that he could not give it and then it was that Griffin attacked him in his paper.

Finally, he said, on the morning of the killing, Griffin sought another interview with him and threatened to publish an arhe gave him $50 or $100. They had hot words in which Jesse says he threatened the editor with violence if he carried out his declared purpose. They then separated, Jesse says he went home and found his wife in tears with Griffin's paper on her lap. He got his pistol with the purpose of self-destruction, but afterward meeting Griffin on the street and being blinded by rage and despondency, before he realized what he was doing, he shot him down.

Several witnesses, among them ex-Circuit Judge C. E. Anthony and Chief of Police S. B. Arnold testified that Griffin bore the reputation of being a blackmailer. It was also shown by the circuit court records that in 1890 he pleaded guilty and was fined three times for criminal libel.

NO SPEECHES BY STANLEY. All of His Kansas Dates to Be Canceled Because of Twentieth's Reception.

TOPEKA, Oct. 12.-(Special.) Governor Stanley will probably not be able to make the November election. He is tied up with the Twentieth Kansas reception and will devote almost his entire time to making it a big success.

"The governor is billed to make three speeches in Ohio," said Chairman Albaugh, of the Republican state committee, to-day, "and there is absolutely no way for him to cancel them. But as to speeches in the state he will not likely be able to make a solitary one between this time and the coming election. He wants to make the reception of the Twentieth Kansas the biggest affair ever held in the state, and in order to do so must stay at home and direct much of the work."

The probable cancelation of all the governor's speaking dates in the state will no doubt be a disappointment to many communities, but under the circumstances they will probably not make any complaint.
